

Alexander Janovich

Townhall, 1004 Market Place, Little Town
234 – 100 200 03
major@townhall-littletown.com

BACKGROUND

In school, I always dreamed of building a regional company that completely produces in the area and creates many jobs. The idea was rooted in my political engagement to stop the brain drain (young, educated people moving away to find better jobs elsewhere) from my hometown. Despite staying in politics and never becoming a founder myself, I placed the topic in many conversations with my school friends.

In 1989, I was main initiator of the big campaign and protest against nuclear weapons. Peace, disarmament and sustainability are, until today, core of my political work.

EDUCATION

Little Town River School High
1984
A level

EXPERIENCE

Office manager | Emma Lucas, Member of Parliament
1988 - 1995

Secretary | City council faction Local Leading Party
1995 - 2000

Major | Little Town
2000 - today